USJFCOM
JOINT FORCES COMMAND

The United States Joint Forces Command provides mission-ready joint-capable forces and supports the development and integration of joint, interagency, and multinational capabilities to meet the present and future operational needs of the joint force

USJFCOM with its component commands will respond to combatant commanders' operational requirements by providing timely and mission-ready joint capabilities.

To accomplish this USJFCOM will become a harmonized force made up of soldiers, sailors, airmen, Marines and civilians who excel at joint warfighting. Together with the service headquarters and our interagency and multinational partners, USJFCOM will achieve unity of effort to maximize our joint strengths. Not only will we be instrumental in countering violent extremists, USJFCOM will anticipate and prepare for the future demands of the National Defense Strategy.

ABOUT US

The U.S. Joint Forces Command Joint Training Directorate/Joint Warfighting Center (J7) trains forces, develops doctrine, leads training requirements analysis and provides a globally distributed and interoperable training environment to improve joint force readiness.

It coordinates the military's overall joint training efforts while working with a broad range of partners including:

- The Office of the Secretary of Defense
- Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff
- U.S. military services
- Combatant commands (COCOM)
- Interagency partners
- Multinational partners

DOCTRINE AND EDUCATION

J7 assists the Joint Staff by serving as the major production center for joint doctrine assessment and development.

In this role, the J7:

- Leads analysis of validated concepts, lessons learned, capabilities, policies and strategies as well as integration into joint doctrine.
- Supports the development of handbooks, newsletters and white papers on new or emerging issues.
- Certifies individual learning courses for institutional and distance learning.

TRAINING THE JOINT FORCE

J7 conducts joint exercises, facilitating the development and execution of rigorous and realistic collective joint training in environments that replicate real-world operations. J7 provides joint context and capabilities by:

- Leading a mission rehearsal program that prepares combined and joint task force commanders and staffs for countering violent extremists in Iraq, Afghanistan and the Horn of Africa.
- Supporting combatant command and service joint training exercises to include unique requirements.
- Supporting multinational exercises.

PROFESSIONAL MILITARY EDUCATION

J7 provides joint professional military education for senior military leadership through the following courses:

- Capstone - prepares newly selected one- and two-star officers to employ U.S. forces more effectively in joint and multinational operations.
- Keystone - educates command senior enlisted leaders serving in a general or flag officer-level joint task force.
- Pinnacle - prepares prospective three-star commanders to lead joint and combined forces, setting conditions for future success in the joint, combined and interagency arenas.

Individual joint training is also provided to nearly 100,000 users of Joint Knowledge Online, an advanced distributed online learning network that provides immediate access to joint knowledge resources.

JOINT TRAINING ENVIRONMENT DEVELOPMENT

J7 develops an environment that enables joint training in realistic operational scenarios worldwide through:

- Joint National Training Capability Joint Management Office (JMO), offering a mix of live, virtual and constructive models and simulations over an integrated network of training sites, providing a realistic joint mission experience.
- Information Operations JMO, facilitating information operations testing, training and other events.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS TO ENABLE TRAINING

- The Joint Deployment Training Center develops and delivers deployment planning and execution, functional training, and education to COCOMs, DoD agencies and professional military education institutions.
- The Joint Targeting School provides formal training to mid-career military operations and intelligence personnel designated for targeting positions at unified commands, the joint staff, defense agencies and services.
- The NATO School Element serves as the U.S. lead agent for NATO's key operational-level training facility.
- The Joint Interoperability Division trains warfighters on joint tactical data link information management and exchange.
- The Joint Personnel Recovery Agency shapes personnel recovery for DoD, interagency and partner nations, aiding commanders, forces and individuals in effectively meeting their responsibilities.
